Read it and weep

Fig. read the bad news; hear the bad news. I'm sorry to bring you the bad news. Read it and weep.
Like it or not, read it and weep, every bear market since the Federal Reserve Bank began in 1913 has collapsed and bottomed beneath the green shaded area on this chart. A repeat performance means that the D. J. I. A. will collapse to below the low of 6,470.
The bull market in gold began in September 1999 at $253.20. The bear market in the Dow Jones Industrial Average began in March 2000 at 11,750.30. To quote a most well-known and respected philosopher, “It aint over till it’s over.”
Disclaimer: The contents of this letter represent the opinions of Ronald L. Rosen. Nothing contained herein is intended as investment advice or recommendations for specific investment decisions, and you should not rely on it as such. Ronald L. Rosen is not a registered investment advisor. Information and analysis above are derived from sources and using methods believed to be reliable, but Ronald L. Rosen cannot accept responsibility for any trading losses you may incur as a result of your reliance on this analysis and will not be held liable for the consequence of reliance upon any opinion or statement contained herein or any omission. Individuals should consult with their broker and personal financial advisors before engaging in any trading activities. Do your own due diligence regarding personal investment decisions.