History tells us that on March 16, 2008:

“There was an emergency unscheduled meeting in response to the meltdown at Bear Stearns. The FOMC arranged loan securities for JPMorgan Chase and greased a buyout of Bear Stearns to make certain that Bear's debts would be backed. It also provided for the creation of a fund to swap safe Treasury securities for less secure ones held by banks. It lastly shaved the difference between the discount rate and the federal funds rate from 50 basis points to 25. Official Statement”

The following charts of gold and silver show us that a most powerfully bullish correction began exactly one day later on St. Patrick's Day March 17, 2008. That correction is known as a Running Flat. It is complete.

“Apparently in this case, the forces in the direction of the larger trend are so powerful that the pattern becomes skewed in that direction.”
