“Has there ever been a country whose stock average was in a bull market, the price of gold and silver was in a bull market and their currency was in a bear market?” REPORT September 22, 2018

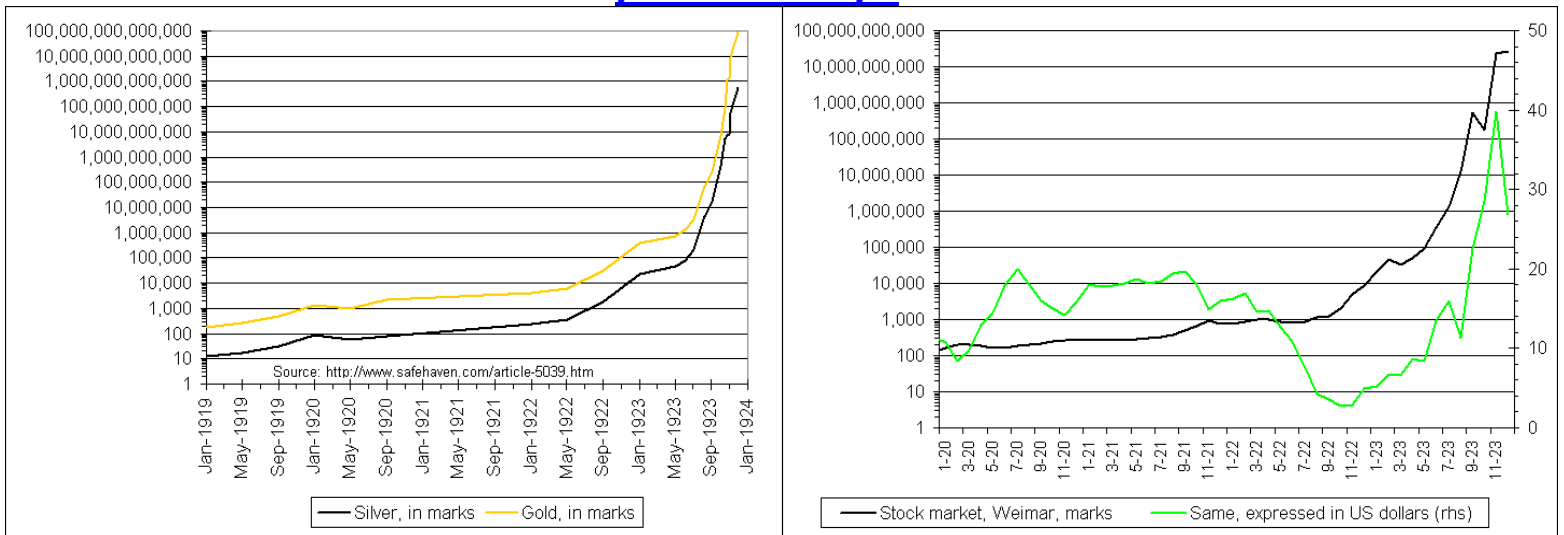

Katastrophe des Jahrhunderts

These charts represent the pathetic financial and economic disaster made in Germany by the Weimar Republic. Gold and silver rose dramatically, their stocks rose slightly by comparison to the rise in gold and silver and the mark collapsed in buying power.

As shown on page 2 the Dow Industrial Average confirmed the highs in the Dow Transport Average. A Dow Theory bull market has been confirmed. The S & P 500 has been making new all-time highs. Gold and silver may be ready to resume their bull market. The Dollar Index has resumed its bear market. This Federal Reserve/Political American made disaster is best summarized by this;

In order for a bull market to be confirmed both the Dow Jones Transportation Average and the Dow Jones Industrial Average must confirm each other. The Dow Transports made a new all-time high in the September quarter of 2018. The Dow Industrials confirmed the Dow Transports all-time high by making an all-time high in the December quarter of 2018. According to the Dow Theory a bull market is still in force as of May 3, 2019.

 “Dow Theory: Market Indexes Must Confirm Each Other”

The Dollar Index being in a bear market while the Dow Jones stock averages are in a bull market is somewhat duplicating the Weimar Republic Disaster.

With gold and silver close to resuming their bull market plus the Dollar Index having resumed its bear market and the Dow stock averages confirming their bull market there is nothing for us to do but hang on to our gold and silver investments. We best pray that these charts soon tell us a different story. We can also sing <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Eg2h-J63moo>. However, the disgusting New York Yankees banned this song by Kate Smith from being played. They truly are “DAMN YANKEES”.
