Let's just call this a conservative Republican Jew's sense of humor. Yep that's me! I sent this to my extreme liberal democratic fellow Jewish friends in the North. They are horrified by the Confederate flag!! They want it brought down immediately anywhere and everywhere it flies. I thought a little history lesson might be in order.

Take My Hand, Precious Lord

“Contrary to popular belief, "Jews had found themselves very much at home in the South, much more so than elsewhere," says the University of Georgia's Emory Thomas, a historian and author of many Civil War books. "They were accepted members of the community, and therefore they cast their loyalties with this new Confederacy, bought bonds and did everything patriotic Southerners would do." Some 3,000 or more Jews fought for the South, practically every male of military age. Many carried with them to the front the famous soldiers' prayer, beginning with the sacred prayer, the "Shema," written by Richmond Rabbi Max Michelbacher, who after secession, had issued a widely-published benediction comparing Southerners to "the Children of Israel crossing the Red Sea." Many Jewish Confederates distinguished themselves by showing, along with their Christian comrades, amazing courage, dedication, and valor—and all enduring incredible hardships against overwhelming and often hopeless odds. All Jewish companies reported to the fray from Macon and Savannah, Georgia. In Louisiana, 3 Jews reached the rank of Colonel. They were S. M. Hymans, Edwin Kuncheedt and Ira Moses. Major Adolph Proskauer of Mobile, Alabama was wounded several times. A subordinate officer wrote "I can see him now as he nobly carried himself at Gettysburg, standing coolly and calmly with a cigar in his mouth at the head of the 12th Alabama amid a perfect rain of bullets, shot and shell. He was the personification of intrepid gallantry and imperturbable courage." The most famous Southern Jew of that era was Judah Benjamin. He was educated in law at Yale. Judah Benjamin served President Davis and the Confederacy in 3 positions, Attorney General, Secretary of War and Secretary of State. Abraham Myers was a West Point graduate and classmate of Robert E. Lee. Myers served as Quartermaster General. Major Raphael Moses, General Longstreet's chief commissary officer, whose three sons also fought for the South. Moses ended up attending the last meeting and carrying out the Last Order of the Confederate government. History books gloss over the fact that Union generals like Ulysses Grant and William Sherman, who burned Atlanta, talked about "damned Jewish peddlers," while both Jeff Davis and Robert E. Lee were known to have many Jewish friends. General Robert E. Lee, is renowned for publicly showing great respect for his Jewish soldiers."*****
